

2024 International Workshop on ADHD, Crime, and Disorder

Hosted by CHADD of Greater Los Angeles + ADHD360

Event FAQs

1. Who is this workshop for?

This workshop is specifically designed for law enforcement officers, including police officers, sheriffs, and other related professionals from Los Angeles and Orange County. It will be particularly beneficial for those interested in learning more about the correlation between ADHD and criminal behavior.

2. What will be covered in the workshop?

The workshop will cover a range of topics, including:

- The high prevalence of ADHD among inmates.
- How effective ADHD treatment can reduce criminal behavior and substance abuse.
- Emotional regulation strategies for individuals with ADHD.
- The impact of ADHD on rehabilitation outcomes and public safety.
- Practical strategies for law enforcement to address ADHD-related crime.

3. Who are the hosts of this workshop?

This workshop is hosted by the nonprofit Children and Adults with ADHD (CHADD) of Greater Los Angeles and ADHD360, a leading UK-based organization focused on ADHD assessment and treatment. Both organizations are dedicated to improving the lives of individuals with ADHD and providing education and resources to professionals.

4. Who are the speakers?

The workshop will feature Dr. Phillip Anderton, a retired senior UK police officer, Member of the Royal Society of Medicine, and Chief Executive Officer of ADHD360. Dr. Anderton is an expert in ADHD and its impact on crime and disorder.

5. Why is understanding ADHD important for law enforcement?

Understanding ADHD is crucial because a significant percentage of inmates are diagnosed with the condition. Properly addressing ADHD through treatment and intervention can lead to a reduction in criminal behavior, substance abuse, and recidivism, ultimately enhancing public safety and reducing costs associated with crime.

6. When and where is the workshop taking place?

The workshop will be held on Wednesday, November 13th at 3:00 pm at the Hyatt Regency Orange County.

7. How do I register for the workshop?
